Topics discussed during the

Afterthoughts

session were developed by participants and were intended to continue conversations from the sessions that took place during the first two days of the PLO. Participants then ended their day with independent reflections, IU team time, and more mentor reflections.

Feedback from the PLO was positive:

“The Breakout sessions this year were relevant and engaging. Every coach that attended in my IU said this was the best PLO for the year. Each of the breakout sessions provided excellent resources/take-aways and opportunity to learn from others.” – Instructional Coach

“It always amazes me to hear the great work that coaches are doing across the state. PLOs like these provide opportunities for professional development and also validation for the work that is being done.” – Instructional Coach

“It is the perfect venue for learning, collaboration and planning alignment! Support on so many levels, highest quality of PD and the best resources in the state-people who know and honor education as both a science and art.” – Instructional Coach
